Postponement, change of date, cancellation and refund policy Due to the significant quantity of work carried out prior to the marriage taking place, the $395 booking fee is non-refundable. If the fee has been paid in full and notice of cancellation of the ceremony is provided no less than 60 days prior to the date of the booking/ marriage, the fee paid, less the non-refundable booking fee amount of $395 will be refunded on request. If less than 60 days' notice of cancellation is provided, all fees paid are non-refundable. Once a marriage booking has been postponed or the date changed, a credit note is in place so the booking becomes non-refundable. Credit notes for postponed weddings expire 6 months from the original wedding date.

If your marriage is prevented from taking place due to Queensland pandemic related restrictions not permitting your marriage to proceed, your booking may be postponed/ moved to a new available date on one occasion with no date change fee payable. Vaccine mandates are not considered a pandemic related restriction for postponements and/ or cancellations. For subsequent Queensland restriction related postponements or date changes, and/ or bookings that can still proceed in QLD under the current QLD restrictions and for non-pandemic related restriction postponements, a new non-refundable booking fee of $395 applies to cover additional administration and to exclusively secure the new date and timeslot. A maximum of 2 postponed dates may be secured under the above conditions (e.g. 3 wedding dates held in total including the original wedding date). Any subsequent postponements beyond this will incur payment of our full fee to secure the further date.

Any changes to marriage certificate documents made less than 14 days before the date of the marriage incur a $50+gst marriage stationery replacement and administration fee. If the NOIM form expires before the marriage takes place and a new NOIM form is required, an administration and lodgement fee of $100+gst applies. In accordance with industry requirements, any credit note issued for postponed weddings expires 6 months from the original wedding date.
